Description

An elegant Edwardian solid silver and cut crystal claret jug in superb condition, hallmarked Sheffield 1907. The slender vessel with flared base and deep cut decoration to the centre, complementing star cut base. The deep polished solid silver collar with angular handle set to the side and matching angular pouring spout to the front. Slightly domed lid set above with finial to the centre. The lid opening to reveal a shield to the front edge of the collar to prevent spills through the lid when pouring. Bears the makers mark for Sheffield silversmiths James Deakin & Sons along with clear hallmarks to all sections. Presented in excellent condition with a deep shine to the silver fittings and perfect clear crystal. Keep up to date via Instagram - sturmansantiques. Measures 10" high x 5" diameter at the base.
