

SA1089897

Georgian Irish Glass Decanter c1815

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1089897*Date of manufacture: 1800

Dimensions

Height = 27 cm (10.6")

Description

Technical Description A Georgian Irish glass decanter dating to c1815. Original radial target stopper with the applied neck rings with flute moulding to the lower section. Radial moulding to the underside. Probably Cork.
Date & Origin Cork, Ireland, c1815. Period of George III. Condition Excellent, age-related wear as shown.
Dimensions Height: 27cm (including stopper) Diameter: 12cm. Historical Context Hand-blown around the time the Apothecaries (1815) Act prohibited unlicensed medical practitioners. Relevant References A similar example is featured in The Decanter Ancient to Modern by Andy McConnell on p180 plate 4.

Internal Ref: 2024952902

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

