Description

Gents Citizen Crystal Seven automatic wrist watch, 1967. The watch has a 21 jewel automatic movement which is working nicely. The watch measures 37mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The case is stainless steel and it is in lovely condition. Original signed Citizen winding crown. Details of the watch are on the back although they are quite worn now. The lens is in lovely condition. The signed dial is in its original finish with original hands, centre seconds, and day and date displays. Date is quickset at first position, and the day is set by winding the hands forward. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
