Description

A lovely little boudoir carriage clock with an 8 day French movement. Made in England by Elliot & Sons, it has an enamel face with Roman chapters and decorated with enamel panels depicting hand painted cherubs catching butterflies. The brass casing is all over etched with flowers. It is in very good working order, keeps good time and has the original key. Circa 1900. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
