Description

Art Nouveau period lamp table bedside cupboards Here we have this outstanding pair of a rare Art Nouveau (circa 1910) solid Oak bedside cupboards in beautiful condition. This high quality pair of cupboard feature an extremely well carved ornate top door panel above its book-matched wild Oak grain simple panel door, both framed with moulding. The doors are flanked by ornate columns incorporating acanthus leaf carvings to the top portion and faux panels to the lower. The cupboard doors also feature their lovely original dropper handles incorporating escutcheons to front their original working brass lever locks complete with original key. Unlocking the cupboards and opening the doors reveals a large storage compartment divided in the centre with removable shelves and a quality dovetail constructed drawer to the top which have their inset original brass military dropper handles. The cabinets stand on a simple moulded platforms going to 4 small bun feet. These cabinets have their original idyllic beautiful lightly faded French polished finish with a lovely rich medium oak colour. We have carefully cleaned and waxed these cupboards, maintaining their original patina whilst ...
