Description

A superb Georgian mahogany tilt-top table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a circular one-piece mahogany top standing on a turned baluster support with tripod splayed legs and pad feet. It has a lovely rich colour and is strong and sturdy with a good level top and its original blacksmith-made latch. The tilting mechanism is smooth with a strong catch. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few small surface marks, old stains and light knocks but nothing detrimental and there are no major damages. It has been gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
