Description

The bench stands on square legs supporting the main section leading to beautifully shaped arms. There are turned columns to the ends as well as the back rest. The back rest has a middle plaque that is beautifully arched to the centre. There are two lift up lids with plenty of storage space beneath. Condition : This bench is in good condition. It is in its total original paintwork. This bench would look well in an old or modern property in any room for seating purposes. It would look great in a hallway etc or to the one side of a large table. The bench could be professionally stripped which would cost between £45-£65. It could then be sanded and waxed etc.
