Description

A beautiful large Victorian photograph locket with a substantial fancy link chain. The chain has double belcher-type links and three unusual large torpedo-shaped bead links with fleur-de-lys detailing. The back of the locket is fully hallmarked for Birmingham sterling silver 1905, and bears the sponsor's mark TE. The locket contains acetates in both sides, ready to insert your own pictures or tiny treasures. In very good antique condition. One of the torpedo links has a crack but this is purely cosmetic (see photos). The hinge and clasps are in good working order. The chain has been slightly extended with a new silver clasp section at some time. Chain length: Approximately 18 inches. Locket size: Approximately 3 x 4cm. The drop from the bottom of the central torpedo link to the bottom of the locket is 6cm (2.5 inches). Total weight: 35g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING!
