Description

A handsome mid C19th mahogany pedestal desk of good practical scale and proportions. A good quality nine-drawer mahogany pedestal desk fitted with a high quality replacement scarlet-red leather writing surface with both 'blind' and gilt-tooled border. Retaining all original turned mahogany knob-pull handles to the drawer fronts together with brass escutcheons and fitted with high quality "Hobbs & Co. London" stamped brass locks. The drawers having moulded edge surrounds, the pedestals fitted with castors beneath the plinth bases, the top with a 'thumb-moulded' edge. Constructed in the traditional manner in three parts for ease of movement and transportation. Of free-standing form with polished surfaces all around. In excellent condition having been sympathetically and skilfully restored approximately 20 years ago. Minor marks and dents commensurate with age, use and purpose. Some historic marks and minor scratches to leather writing surface. Rich, consistent colour and patina to the mahogany. H 32" W 60" D 30" England c.1850

Internal Ref: ML 249
