Description

This is an antique lidded coal scuttle. An English, brass fireside fuel store, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Strikingly vibrant colour accentuates this charming store. Displays a desirable aged patina and lightly time worn appearance. Brass beams with wonderful golden tonality to the exterior. Pleasingly original interior suitable for all fuel types, including coal and kindling. Square lid with domed centre and a tactile, chamfered handle. Adorned to each surface with a distinctive relief twist pattern. Dressed with a pair of carry handles for ease of movement. Raised upon a quartet of prominent slipper feet with scrolled motif. This is a delightful antique lidded coal scuttle, with a desirably bright finish, well suited to a grand fireside location. Delivered ready for the home.
