Description

This is an antique coffee house bell. An Italian, brass and mahogany wall mounted cafe bell, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Charmingly decorative example, with an ornate mount. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Brass presents deep golden hues, with polished finish to mount. Select stocks to the plinth presents a deep caramel colour. Robust, ornate arm hosts the relief decorated bell. Bell clapper finished with a small rope pull and tactile brass handle. Bold ring makes a distinctive, prominent sound - ideal for a busy cafe. Scenes of figures adorn the bell circumference, with scrolled pattern detail. Engraved with the Latin phrase Persona Grata ad Gloriam Dei. Roughly translates to English as 'A Pleasing Person, to the Glory of God'. This is a delightful antique coffee house bell, with a pleasingly decorative finish. Delivered ready for the home or institution.
