Description

Edwardian Britannia silver porringer and cover; of circular Charles II ,two handled style. Resting on a circular foot with applied leaf design to the bottom third of the body, and leaf-capped twin handles, the interior is beautifully gilded. The cover is a joy to behold, with more leaf design, and a wonderful "cabbage" knob. Britannia silver is of purer quality than standard Sterling, being 950/1000 against 925/1000 for Sterling. This is a marvellous piece of silver, by one of the great manufacturers of the time. London. 1907. Goldsmiths & Silversmiths Co. Height 13.5cm. Width (hanle tip to handle tip) 16cm. Diameter of bowl 10cm.

Internal Ref: 28/908
