Description

A good quality mahogany side table dating from the early 19th century. It stands on turned tapering legs and it has two drawers, each with their original turned and fluted knobs. It has a striking architectural style gallery at the back of the table with a small shelf supported by turned pillars. It is an excellent quality piece and the colour of the timbers is superb. It is in good condition with a lovely rich patina. There are signs of age and use, some small marks and knocks and minor chips but no major damages and it displays well. The drawers open well and are generally clean and tidy. The table has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
