Description

A lovely small bank of tabletop drawers dating from the early 20th Century which would suit use as a collectors cabinet or a filing cabinet. It is made of mahogany and has 4 drawers, each with their original brass handles. The top 2 drawers are divided in half internally and the bottom 2 are plain. There is a small maker's label inside the top drawer for "Henry Stone & Son Manufacturers Banbury". It is in very good condition and the drawers are clean and tidy. There are some small knocks and scuffs and signs of age and use picked up over the years but nothing detrimental and it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £15
