Description

Fabulous 1930's Art Deco wall light in great condition. The glass is clean and bright, the chrome frame has minimal signs of aging. A great opportunity to make a impressive impact to either a bathroom, hallway or anywhere you would like to glam up. The glass is a palest of pink colour. The bulb holders are modern (earthed) brass bayonet type. As these are wall lights, the fittings are for sale without wiring, so must be installed by a qualified electrician. Made in England by the general electric company, this light is totally original and are becoming increasingly hard to come by. FREE UK mainland delivery
