Description

An elegant set of 6 dining chairs from the 18th century, crafted from fine mahogany and featuring a classic design that exudes timeless appeal. Each chair stands on decorative turned legs, lending a touch of sophistication and refinement to their overall look. The drop-in seats are upholstered in a rich green fabric, providing a striking contrast against the warm tones of the mahogany. The chairs have simple yet elegant backs that highlight the beauty of the wood's natural grain and colour, showcasing the craftsmanship and attention to detail characteristic of the period. Built to the highest standards, these chairs are of excellent quality, with solid frames and no movement, ensuring they remain sturdy and reliable through years of use. In great condition, this set is perfect for those who appreciate the understated elegance and superior craftsmanship of 18th-century furniture. Whether used in a dining room or as accent pieces, these chairs offer both comfort and a touch of history, making them a standout addition to any home.
