Description

Step into the timeless allure of the 20th century with this magnificent large oak wardrobe, a testament to both quality craftsmanship and enduring style. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this piece is dating back to 1900 offering both practical storage solutions and exquisite aesthetic appeal. At the heart of the wardrobe lies a large bevel-edged mirror, serving as a focal point and adding depth to the room. Behind the mirror, ample hanging space awaits, providing room for all your garments and accessories, ensuring your wardrobe remains organised and clutter-free. Below the mirror, two spacious drawers offer additional storage options, perfect for stowing away smaller items or linens. Each drawer retains its original handles and fittings, adding a touch of authenticity to the piece and enhancing its vintage charm. Adorning the upper section of the wardrobe are beautifully carved panels, showcasing the craftsmanship and artistry of its makers. These intricate details not only add visual interest but also elevate the wardrobe's overall elegance and sophistication. Throughout the piece, the oak's gorgeous grain and rich coloration are on full display, creating a...
