Description

Beautiful 19th Century French Ebonised & Marquetrie Side Table, c1880 with ormolu mounts & with an inlaid walnut & fruitwood marquetrie scene to the top. The marquetrie scene depicts a shepherdess resting against a tree accompanied by her sheep & goats. Bold cabriole legs & two drawers with walnut linings. Good condition with all ormolu mounts present & no losses to the marquetrie or inlays. Some fine horizontal hairlines to the ebonised polish & carcase to each side of the table (see photos) & single fine hairline to each drawer front (See photos) commensurate with age & design. This table would make an excellent bedside table, lamp table or wine table. Dimensions: Table Top: Width 16 3/4" (42.5cm) Depth 11 1/2" (29.2cm) Width 17 1/4" (44cm) at widest point of legs. Height 29 1/4" (74.2cm) Depth 12 1/2" (31.8cm) at widest point of legs.
