Description

An ornate antique 800 grade silver and green paste & pearl ring. A glamorous design with lovely bright emerald green paste gems. The central stone is a slightly pointed smooth cabochon shape and is surrounded by a ring of small seed pearls. Encircling the pearls is a ring of small green faceted paste stones with four additional stones at the four 'corners' of the ornate oval setting. The silver setting has additional layers of shaped silver lifting the ring into a raised position on the finger. A gorgeous antique ring for lovers of green and ornate 19th century jewellery. In good antique condition. Hallmarked with the 800 silver mark - a dogs head - for Hungarian town of Pest, 1866-1937 Period circa late Victorian Measurements: Setting dimensions 2cm x 1.8cm Depth: 1.2cm Weight 6 grams Ring Size M All measurements are approximate.
