Description

An elegant set of 12 dining chairs from the 20th century, designed in the refined Hepplewhite style and crafted from mahogany. Each chair stands on gracefully tapered legs with splay feet, adding a touch of classic sophistication to the ensemble. The beautifully decorated backs feature intricate details that highlight the craftsmanship and attention to design characteristic of the Hepplewhite style. The overstuffed seats are upholstered in a multicoloured fabric, offering both comfort and a vibrant accent to your dining area. These chairs are built to a high standard, with solid joints ensuring no movement and providing lasting stability. In good condition, this set of all singles is a perfect blend of elegance and functionality, ideal for both formal dining occasions and everyday use. The quality construction and timeless design make these chairs a distinguished addition to any dining room, combining style with durability.
