Description

A beautiful example of a double ended scent bottle dating from the late 19th century. It has ornate engraved silver gilt tops, one end is hinged and the other end is a screw top. The bottle itself is excellent quality with faceted cut glass with a bohemian blue glass overlay. It is in very good condition for its age. There are some small marks here and there and some slight wear to the gilding on one end and general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. There are no major cracks or damages to the glass. It has been cleaned and gently polished and overall it displays very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
