Description

A magnificent set of 6 dining chairs from the late 19th century, crafted in oak and featuring heavily carved frames that showcase exquisite attention to detail. Each chair stands on elegantly turned legs, providing both stability and style. The beautifully decorated backs are adorned with intricate carvings, reflecting the exceptional artistry of the period. The chairs feature padded seats upholstered in rich red fabric, adding a touch of luxury and contrast to the ornate oak frames. With excellent quality craftsmanship and solid frames that exhibit no movement, these chairs offer durability and timeless elegance. All chairs are singles, making this set a stunning addition to any dining room.
