Description

A charming small 18th-century tripod table in mahogany, showcasing the fine quality and craftsmanship typical of the period. This exquisite piece features a beautifully decorated raised gallery around the edge of the tabletop, adding a touch of elegance and functionality. The mahogany boasts a gorgeous grain and rich colour, highlighting its timeless appeal. Supported by a classic tripod base, the table's design balances simplicity with refined details, making it a versatile addition to any room. Despite its age, the table remains in good condition with a solid structure, offering both aesthetic charm and practical use. A perfect choice for those seeking a petite yet distinguished antique accent.
