Description

A fine and rare Art Deco sideboard in figured walnut by Hille. Two large cupboards to each side, each with a green baised drawer, sectioned for cutlery and two shelves below. To the centre a floating glass shelf, with a shelf below and two deep drawers. The wooden handles, move to the side to reveal the working locks. Raised on a striking stepped base. Other items of this dining room suite are also available. Ray Hille began designing furniture as early as 1922. In 1932 her father Salamon Hille retired from the business and Ray Hille took over the management of S. Hille & Co. continuing to take the business forward, with great quality and well designed furniture, still much appreciated and desired today. All our furniture is professionally polished and restored where necessary. Our restorer has over 40 years of furniture restoration experience including 15 years living at Windsor Castle whilst working for the Royal household, so comes highly recommended! Height: 99.2cm Width: 184.5cm Depth of centre: 56cm Depth of sides: 43.5cm
