Description

A stylish, vintage silver and white guilloché enamel brooch. This fabulous brooch is wonderfully styled with a curve and a fold to add depth. The brooch is inlaid with white guilloché enamel and has a warm silver gilt finish around the edges and back. There is a pin on the back that is a little bent, but fits the clasp well. Marked on the reverse with the designers mark for Albert Scharning, who produced his pieces in Oslo until his death in the 1950's. Also marked 925 S. Great for a collector of Norwegian jewellery. Unusual brooch and in great condition. Period: circa 1940's. Measurements: Width: 6.5 cm Height: 2.3 cm Depth: 1.5 cm Weight: 10.6 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
