Description

An exquisite 18th-century set of 8 Irish dining chairs, showcasing refined craftsmanship and timeless elegance. The set comprises 2 carvers and 6 singles, each chair featuring elegantly decorated backs and drop-in seats upholstered in a rich red fabric. The chairs stand on square legs connected by a supporting cross stretcher, ensuring both stability and classic charm. The wood displays magnificent grain and colour, characteristic of high-quality craftsmanship from the period. In Great condition, these chairs exhibit solid frames with no movement, reflecting their superb quality and durability. Each piece in this set embodies an outstanding blend of historical grace and practical functionality, making them a distinguished addition to any dining room.
