Description

A small 20th-century chest of drawers in mahogany combines classic design with exceptional craftsmanship. Featuring elegant splay feet, it supports four drawers, two small over two large, all fitted with their original brass handles. The upper section is adorned with satin wood inlay, adding a sophisticated touch. The mahogany displays a magnificent grain, reflecting excellent quality. Its unusual small size makes it a versatile and charming addition to any space, blending functionality with distinctive style. In good solid condition, this chest of drawers is both a practical and aesthetically pleasing piece. Please review the photos for more details, and feel free to reach out with any questions!
