Description

This attractive set of six Victorian dining chairs from the 19th century, crafted in mahogany, exemplifies the elegance of the period. The chairs are supported by decorative cabriole legs and feature balloon backs, adding a graceful touch to their design. The overstuffed seats are upholstered in a white fabric, offering both comfort and a sophisticated aesthetic. The backs of the chairs showcase beautiful, subtle carvings that highlight their classic Victorian craftsmanship. Overall, the set is in good condition, with one previous repair visible in the photos. This charming set is perfect for adding a touch of historic elegance to any dining space.
