Description

A small early Victorian mahogany 2 tier dumb waiter, the top with rounded corners and small raised gallery at the back, turned uprights down to the lower shelf, the legs being a continuation of the uprights, standing on brass castors with china wheels. Good colour and condition, there is an old ink mark at the centre back of the top but otherwise a useful little piece that you could even write at. Was formerly part of the furnishings of The Port Authority of Liverpool. English Circa 1850.
