

SA1091755

Bohemian Spa glass silver mounted tankard, d. 1860.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1091755

Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 19 cm (7.5")

Width = 14.7 cm (5.8")

Description

A Bohemian ruby flashed Spa glass tankard, with silver mounts, dated 1860. The large tankard engraved with panels of various buildings in German Spa towns, alternating with roundels. One panel inscribed 'JL' beneath a heraldic boars head. Having a large loop handle. The glass cover, inscribed 'From Leiut. Col. J. Lardner. To his friend. B.H.H. Birchill, Esq. 1860'. The silver mounts with an elaborate thumb piece of a lion rampant before an oak tree, symbolic of strength and courage. Having London hallmarks. Height – 19 cm, 7 1/2". Width – 14.7 cm, 5 3/4". Condition – No damage. No repair.

Seller Details

Philip Carrol Antiques

North Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 525 579

International Tel: +44 7860 525 579