Description

Here we have a wonderful rare Glamorganshire Oak Welsh dresser c1770. As you can see the dresser has quite remarkable colour and patina. Somehow the dresser has retained the original rack with a few small repairs. There is a row of small drawers to the top of the base with original handles and a gallery back. There are two carefully chosen planks to the top with great grain and colour. The top has shaped sides and a thumb moulded edge. There are three large drawers below with original brass swan neck handles and hand cut dove tail joints. The shaped and pierced fretwork frieze is the best we have ever seen and there are no replacements. The legs are beautifully turned and have reeded mouldings to the front of the feet. There is also a wonderful original pot board to the base. A quite stunning example in fantastic retail condition ready for your home. The dimensions are approx 211 cm high 153 cm wide 46 cm deep.
