Description

For your consideration is this fabulous 1930s modernist clock originating from England. You only have to do a little research to find out how rare these clocks are, they just don't come onto the market. Great size too, much larger than regular clocks so a perfect timepiece for either mantle or desk. The mirror and thick plate glass is in great condition, free from chips, nibbles, discoloration, loss of silvering etc. The chrome does have some pitting and could be re-chromed for absolute perfection. Any admirer of modernism or pure Art Deco or just the finer things in life will appreciate this clock. As with all our clocks we've had it fully serviced and so comes to you in good working order. We've had this clock converted to battery so no winding required or ticking sound.
