Description

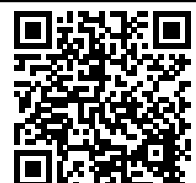

A magnificent and large silver plated Edwardian tray with a pierced fretwork gallery. The tray base is all over decorated with hand engraved flora and four framed country scenes which depict a swan on a lake with country views, a small ship on the sea with cliffs, a little country cottage with trees and a duck in reeds with a countryside view in the background. The whole is raised on four bun feet. The condition is exceptional with no plate loss or dents. This is probably the best tray of its type we have ever found. It is heavy weighing in at 4.2kg. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and we can calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
