Description

A good George III mahogany snap top table in excellent original condition with a good colour and antique patina dating from around 1790. The table is in solid mahogany with a reeded central column and tripod base and tilt action circular solid mahogany top which still has its original hand forged iron catch in good working order. The table is a very useful size measuring 83 cms in diameter and 66 cms high. With the table opened the overall height is 104 cms. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £60 plus vat to most destinations.
