Description

An exquisite set of 6 balloon back dining chairs from the 19th century, crafted from luxurious rosewood. These chairs feature overstuffed seats upholstered in a rich green fabric, adding comfort and a touch of elegance to any dining room. The decorative turned legs and beautifully designed backs showcase exceptional craftsmanship, with intricate details that elevate the overall aesthetic. Each chair boasts a stunning grain and rich colour, highlighting the natural beauty of the rosewood. The set consists of six single chairs, all in excellent condition with strong, sturdy joints, reflecting their superior quality and careful preservation over the years. Perfect for adding a touch of 19th-century charm to your home, these chairs are a testament to the finest quality furniture making of the era. They seamlessly blend style and functionality, making them a standout addition to any dining setting. Whether used daily or reserved for special occasions, these chairs promise to impress with their timeless beauty and impeccable construction.
