Description

A stunning 19th-century set of 6 Chippendale-style dining chairs crafted from mahogany, embodying the elegance and craftsmanship of the period. This set includes 4 single chairs and 2 carvers, all featuring overstuffed seats upholstered in rich red fabric, offering both comfort and a touch of classic luxury. The chairs stand on graceful cabriole legs that culminate in distinctive claw and ball feet, adding a sophisticated flair to their design. The backs are highly detailed, showcasing intricate carvings that reflect the finest Chippendale influences, with various motifs that add depth and character to each chair. The mahogany boasts a gorgeous grain and warm colour, enhancing the overall aesthetic and making these chairs a true focal point in any dining space. Built with good quality and solid craftsmanship, the frames are in good condition with no movement, ensuring durability and stability. This set is perfect for those who appreciate the timeless beauty and intricate detailing of 19th-century furniture, making it a superb addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors.
