Description

This stunning 18th-century bureau stands as a testament to exquisite craftsmanship and classic design. Constructed with fine attention to detail, it rests on elegant bracket feet and features a meticulously fitted interior that reflects its superior quality. The bureau is designed with five drawers—two smaller ones positioned above three larger ones—each equipped with brass handles and fittings. The drawer fronts are elegantly cross-banded, showcasing the piece's intricate woodwork and adding to its refined aesthetic. With its rich, beautiful grain and deep, attractive colour, this bureau not only serves as a functional piece of furniture but also as a striking statement in any room. In excellent condition, it combines historical charm with practical utility.
