Description

A lovely tilt-top table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It is a good size with a circular Elm top set on an oak base with turned column and nicely shaped tripod splayed legs. The elm has developed a lovely warm colour and patina and it has its original blacksmith-made closing latch. It is in very good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use, a few marks and minor stains on the top surface but no major damages or anything detrimental. The whole piece has a beautiful rich patina and is a lovely honest piece of country furniture. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
