Description

Silver sovereign case in a square pillow shape nicely engraved to both sides. The front has a wide shield shaped vacant cartouche which could be used to personalise the case with initials. The case opens with a push button at the top and hinges at the bottom to reveal a spring loaded holder to hold a sovereign. Engine turned engraving decorates the cover of the holder and the lid interior is gilt finished. The sovereign case comes with a loop to suspend it from a fob or chain. Condition: In good antique condition, with a very small dint to one corner of the back - hardly noticeable but mentioned for complete accuracy. Hallmarked Birmingham 1913 Joseph Gloster Ltd. Measurements: 3cm x 2.8 cm case only. Length including ring: 4.3 cm Weight: 20 grams All measurements are approximate.
