

SA1093331

Oil Painting Pilot Boat Tyne By Tynemouth by John Davison Liddell

Price

GBP 2,150

| USD $2,931 | EUR 2,509

Item Reference: SA1093331Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 46.5 cm (18.3")

Width = 66 cm (26.0")

Depth = 4 cm (1.6")

Description

British Victorian Marine Oil Painting Pilot Steam Tug Boat Leaving The Tyne Newcastle By John Davison Liddell. Impress your clients & guests with this nautical masterpiece statement artwork for your office or home wall space. Oil on canvas, set in a traditional later gilt wood frame. Circa 1890 late 19th century Victorian era. Signed by the known British artist John Davison Liddell. Brief biography of the artist John Davison Liddell (1859 - 1942). John Davidson Liddell a known British artist who specialised in marine & also landscape paintings, he was born during the Victorian era in the year 1859 and was from the north east of England in the town North Shields which is in the borough of North-Tyne side in Tyne & Wear. He painted his artworks using mainly oils. He exhibited his paintings in his native North east area & loved to paint various ships along the river Tyne which was by his birthplace. He died during WW2 in 1942. A selection of his works can be found in the South Shields Museum & Art Gallery also Northumberland County Council Libraries also Quadrant, North Tyneside Council. His paintings have sold at various auctions around the world like Bonhams. Title "Leavi...

Internal Ref: 601

Seller Details

Cheshire Antiques Consultant Ltd

71-75 Shelton Street Covent Garden London WC2H 9JQ United Kingdom By appointment

Tel: 07494 763 382

International Tel: +44 7494 763 382

