Description

A matching pair of Victorian silver sugar nips or tongs. They are good quality with scalloped shell shaped grips. They are clearly hallmarked for London, 1893 and the makers Sibray Hall & Co. They weigh 75g. They are in very good condition for their age and move smoothly. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface marks but nothing detrimental. They have been gently cleaned and polished and are ready for use. Approximate Measurements: Length : 5" (13cm) Width : 2" (5cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
