Description

A solid oak, sliding panelled door cabinet, dating from the 2nd quarter of the c.20th. Twin panelled sliding doors with brass flush set pull handles. Internally there is a single shelf. The rectangular top has a moulded cornice and mashed with plinth base. In very good condition, well presented, and very much ready for use. Dimensions: This cabinet measures approximately 85 cm (33.5") tall, 105 cm (43.625") wide, and 34 cm (13.5") deep. The internal depth is 25 cm (10") and the internal shelf heights are 36 cm (14.175") and 37 cm (14.55"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This cabinet is in a good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Some age and use related marks and blemishes. No damage or obvious signs of repair. The interior has been refitted, with a new shelf, from period correct timbers. There are signs of old screw holes internally. The brass handles are later replacements but suit the cabinet well. Cleaned and serviced, now very much ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
