Description

A matching pair of antique cut glass decanters with sterling silver collars and their original glass stoppers. The collars have triple pouring spouts and the bottles are beautifully cut with star bases. The collars are clearly hallmarked for Sheffield, 1912 and the maker W & C Sissons. They are in very good condition for their age. The silver is in good condition and there are no cracks or damages to the glass. They have been cleaned and gently polished and overall they display very well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
