Description

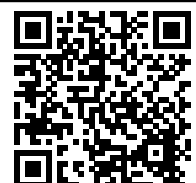

This dresser is in good condition. We have professionally restored it and then painted it in a black paint. We then rubbed over the edges and waxed it giving it a stunning appearance. This dresser would look well in an old or modern property amongst similar antique pine furniture in a large kitchen. This is in two pieces. The dresser stands on splayed back legs and round turned front feet supporting the main section. There are two doors to the bottom section with one panel. There is a shelf behind for storage. Above are two drawers with a round turned wooden knob. The top sits neatly on the base and is slightly set back having a large open section with two large spice drawers above. Above are two large glazed doors with a key. We have painted behind the doors a light blue that contrasts well with the black. Behind there are shelves. The top has a standard graduated cornice. There are fluted columns and carved corbels to the sides. This is a cracking dresser especially if you have a long, thin kitchen! The height is 214cm, the width is 130cm and the depth is 50cm.
