Description

Clipper Ship Garthpool (Barque) A Fine Marine Seascape Watercolour Painting Brief Description: This is a fascinating Original Maritime Watercolour study depicting the Scottish Clipper Ship Garthpool (Barque), that was launched in 1891 and ran aground (wrecked) in 1929 in Bovista, Portugal. The exceptional painting portrays the large majestic vessel sailing at full mast in calm seas. The fabulous rigging can be seen pushing towards the ocean winds with two ship hands standing precariously on one of the very high rigging poles. The piece dates to the 1930s and it is signed in the lower right corner. It is immaculately presented and it is mounted within its original gilt frame and protected behind the original 1930s glass protective panel. Attributes: Watercolour Painting Signed lower right corner Circa: 1930s Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall exceptional original condition.
