Description

A 19thC Toleware Metal, Large Hand Painted Floral Fire Screen, 91cm, signed. A superb example of a large hand-painted, toleware metal firescreen, a large country house scale pierced metal screen with an exquisite hand-painted floral arrangement, signed Herve to the lower right. The nicest example I've seen and certainly the largest, good quality gauge steel with original support to the rear, featuring the central oil painted flower basket decoration. We estimate it dates to circa 1860-1880, English. Dimensions Height 91cm Width 81cm 24cm stand Please request more photos and any questions invited. Free collection from Lewes, East Sussex.
