Description

An early 18th century (circa 1710) unusual oak tavern table of fine patina. This table consists of a three plank oak top with a moulded edge with a drawer to one end, this feature being a very unusual design leading down to rails with lower moulded edge. The table is supported on four elegantly turned legs joined with stretchers all with moulded edge and an iron bracket to each corner, all supported on turned feet. This table is in very good original condition, is of stable construction and can go straight into a home. Size: Height: 27" / 68.5cm Width: 35" / 89cm Depth: 20.75" / 52.5cm
