Description

A neat antique 19th century Windsor armchair. The antique Windsor armchair has a hoop and stick backrest, with a decorative pierced central splat. The 19th century armchair has shaped and figured elm seats, raised on four turned baluster legs with 'H' stretcher supports. Beautiful colour and grain throughout. Item Ref; M-5582 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 102cm / Width - 55.5cm / Depth - 67cm / Seat Height - 40cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the chair. There is fading to the arms (pictured) as well as some loss to one of the legs (pictured), however, this does not affect the overall integrity of the piece. A great example of an antique 19th century Windsor armchair. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection.
