Description

We are delighted to offer this enchanting antique 18ct gold pearl and diamond two-row design ring made c.1880. The ring is made from 18ct antique gold and has a wonderful soft buttery gold tone which wonderfully complements the lustrous pearls on top. Modest yet regal in colour, this ring makes for a versatile piece of jewellery to wear with a wide range of outfits. Each pearl has been carefully set with tapering size and four old rose-cut diamond accents in the middle - the curvature of the surface makes for a wonderfully ergonomic and elegant ring. A delightful piece of Victorian jewellery which can be worn as a single piece or amongst other accessories. A splendid gift for someone special or as an indulgent present for yourself, this ring most certainly distinguishes itself from contemporary pieces and is the perfect addition for the discerning antique lover. Marked 18 on the inner shank. Pearls are known to be the birthstone for June. All of our jewellery comes with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a velvet interior.
