Description

We are delighted to offer this stunning antique 15ct gold diamond and pearl trilogy/three stone ring made c.1890. The ring features a most lovely old mine cut diamond in the centre (approx 0.35ct) flanked by two pearls on the side. Such timeless, modest yet elegant design makes for a versatile and ideal piece of jewellery to wear with a wide range of outfits. The dazzling central diamond complimented by the two lustrous pearls draws the eye to the centre and upon wearing in natural daylight, the diamond's 'fire' delightfully glistens. A delightful piece of Victorian jewellery which can be worn as a single piece or amongst other accessories. A splendid gift for someone special or as an indulgent present for yourself, this ring most certainly distinguishes itself from contemporary pieces and is the perfect addition for the discerning antique lover. The ring is unmarked as is common with articles of this period and as such we have tested it indicating 15ct gold. Diamonds are known to be the birthstone for April and Pearls, June. All of our jewellery comes with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a velvet interior. Size & Total Weight UK Size: L / US Size: 5 3/4 ...
